

Centre for Digital Management and Technology Innovation

Work Study Program

A 6-month program to fast-track
University graduates into the work place

Information Session, May 4, 1-3 pm

1101, Sanford Fleming Building

10 King's College Road

University of Toronto

Active Learning

Real time learning in a collaborative environment along with companies, their principals, vendors, stakeholders, and end clients

Job Opportunities at the end of the Program

Practical Learning

Curriculum includes critical skills in the search for jobs: communication skills, time management, leadership as well as the latest developments in technology in a work related environment

Supervised Learning

Course description aligned with job opportunities

Career planning for Sustainability and Growth

In collaboration with The University of Toronto RiskLab

risklab international
CONNECTED FINANCIAL RESEARCH